The Three Graces

For nearly a century The Three Graces - The Royal Liver Building, The Cunard Building and The Port of Liverpool Building - have defined one of the world’s most recognised skylines. These majestic buildings were conceived and constructed as visible symbols of Liverpool’s international prestige, proud emblems of its commercial prowess.

Albert Dock

The Albert Dock is a truly stunning architectural triumph. Opened in 1846, it soon became a treasure house of precious cargoes from all over the world. Today redevelopment, costing in excess of £100 million, has transformed it into one of Liverpool’s busiest and most cosmopolitan centres and a top heritage destination. It contains excellent visitor attractions including Tate Liverpool, The Beatles Story and The Merseyside Maritime Museum, plus shops, cafés, bars, hotels and restaurants.

Mersey Ferries

There’s no better way to experience Liverpool than from the deck of the world-famous Mersey Ferries while listening to the commentary. You’ll learn about the city and the region’s fascinating history, see its spectacular sights and discover its unique character. The Liverpool waterfront is a UNESCO World Heritage Site so there’s even more reason to take a leisurely cruise on the river.

Anglican Cathedral

This is the largest cathedral in the UK and one of the great buildings of the twentieth century. The cathedral abounds in superlatives: highest gothic arches, largest organ, heaviest ring of bells but the grandeur is balanced by a great sense of welcome and peace. The whole cathedral is used imaginatively for many purposes - worship, concerts, exhibitions, recitals and displays.

9 Museum of Liverpool
Situated on Liverpool's historic Pier Head and within a new landmark building, The Museum of Liverpool is the world's first national museum devoted to the history of a regional city. It is also the largest newly-built national museum in Britain for more than a century. Hop on board the overhead railway, get up close to the stage where John Lennon and Paul McCartney first met, immerse yourself in the city's rich sporting and creative history and experience for yourself what it means to be a Liverpudlian. Don't miss the 360° immersive films about Liverpool and Everton FC and The Beatles!

10 St George's Hall
St George's Hall is widely regarded as one of the finest neo-classical buildings in the world and is a Grade I listed building. St George's Hall stands 169ft long and 74ft wide with a tunnel vaulted ceiling - the largest of its kind in Europe. The ceiling is supported on massive red granite columns, with figures portraying qualities Victorian Liverpool aspired to - art, science, fortitude and justice. St George's Hall is also home to a concert organ complete with 7,000 pipes, second only in size to the organ in the Albert Hall. Throughout the Heritage Centre, imaginative exhibitions, reconstructions and hands-on activities vividly bring the story of St George's Hall alive. Visitors can also follow in the steps of the unfortunate prisoners, from prison cell to the dock.

8 Cavern Club
50 years after The Beatles first performed on its stage, the Cavern Club is still one of Liverpool's top music venues. Today's club has two stages offering a wide variety of live music daily. The iconic stage beneath the brick arches in the front of the club is the image most people associate with the Cavern Club - and this is where visitors can enjoy live music from soloists and cover bands most afternoons and evenings. In addition, the Cavern Live Lounge with its state of the art sound system is the venue for tribute shows and unsigned showcase nights.
